College Savings Plans Network Releases 2017 Infographic Map of U.S. for National College Savings Day

LEXINGTON, KY. (May 22, 2017) – Today the College Savings Plans Network \(CSPN\) released its 2017 infographic map in honor of National 529 College Savings Day on May 29. National College Savings Day raises awareness about the importance of saving for college, specifically through 529 plans. The map compiles all activities and celebrations states across the country will be hosting to commemorate the day. Since 529 Day falls on Memorial Day this year, many states are stretching out their activities over a span of several days, or even throughout the entire month of May. A few highlights include 529 plan contributions to newborn babies born on or around May 29, events with local sports teams, as well as contests, giveaways and scholarships for both existing and new account owners.

“May 29 is one of my favorite days of the year because it brings national awareness to 529 plans, tax-free savings accounts that I believe are without a doubt the best way to save for college,” said Treasurer Young Boozer, Chair of the College Savings Plans Network. “As a father, I understand firsthand how daunting the cost of college is to parents, but don’t let it overwhelm you. My advice to you is simple: just start. Putting money toward your children’s future, small or large, will guide them in the right direction. Visit CSPN’s infographic map to see what your state’s 529 plan is doing to celebrate 5/29. Who knows, you may be one of the lucky winners of the many scholarships being offered.”
